

are pleased to invite you to attend the seminar

ITALIAN COMPANIES DOING BUSINESS IN RUSSIA

12th July 2017, h. 09:30-13:00

c/o Italian-Russian Chamber of Commerce office
Corso Sempione 32/B - 2nd floor, 20154 Milan

PROGRAMME

09.30-09.45

Registration of participants

09.45-10.30

Russian Federation: macroeconomic dynamics, opportunities and challenges for Italian companies

Italian Russian Chamber of Commerce - Leonora Barbiani | Secretary General

10.30-11.45

Business Start-up: Market entry (speeches will be held in English)

- An Italian individual (employee) to explore the market opportunities in Russia

HR implications for the Italian company / Immigration implications

- An Italian Company to create a branch in Russia

Legal and corporate tax implications / HR Implication - Italian employees seconded/transferred to Russia

- An Italian Company to create a subsidiary in Russia

Legal and corporate tax implications / HR implications - differences in respect of the previous case, in any

*EY Russia - Vladimir V. Zheltonogov | Partner, Head of International Tax Services in
the CIS | Tax & Legal*

EY Italy - Savino Tatò | Tax Partner

Fabrizio Cimino | Partner | People Advisory Services

Anna Akimova | Manager | People Advisory Services

11.45-12.45

Business Implementation (speeches will be held in English)

- Joint Ventures - the commercial agreement between an Italian Company and Russian one

Legal implications / Corporate tax and transaction implications / HR implications - Italian employees working for the JV specific aspects to consider

- Corporate transaction - Italian Companies investing (acquiring business) in Russia

High level comments on the main aspects to consider from a legal, tax and HR point of view

*EY Russia - Vladimir V. Zheltonogov | Partner, Head of International Tax Services in
the CIS | Tax & Legal*

Tobias Luepke, MBA | Law/Tax, Partner, Lawyer-Tax Lawyer | Head of CIS M&A Transaction Law Practice / Foreign Desks Leader

EY Italy - Savino Tatò | Tax Partner

Fabrizio Cimino | Partner | People Advisory Services

Anna Akimova | Manager | People Advisory Services

12.45-13.00

Q&A